Business Volunteer Connect After Hours Networking Event We make employee volunteering as easy as BVC!

North Jersey: Business Volunteer Connect will host an after-hours networking event, sponsored by Jack Daniels Motors and TD Bank, on Wednesday, April 23rd from 6 - 8 pm. The event will be held at Jack Daniels Audi, 243 Route 17S, Upper Saddle River. Community relations professionals are invited to network with others who are interested in enhancing or creating an employee engagement program. Guests may register at businessvolunteerconnect.org or contact Ellen Lutvak at 201-489-9454 x133 or elutvak@bergenvolunteers.org. Deadline to register is April 16.

Business Volunteer Connect, a program of the Volunteer Center of Bergen County, provides consultation to companies on everything connected to employee volunteering and community engagement. Services include customized volunteer projects, guidance and expertise on employee volunteer program management, assistance with skills-based volunteering and participation in several annual volunteer initiatives.

Guests will also learn about the Business Volunteer Council (BVC), a dues-supported membership organization open to any employer with operations in the tri-state area. It is a vital component of the Volunteer Center's network of services for employee engagement professionals. With a heightened emphasis on providing opportunities for networking, professional development and sharing of best practices, the BVC continues to provide leadership in meeting community needs through employee volunteerism.

The Volunteer Center of Bergen County strengthens the community by connecting people through service and developing civic leaders. Visit bergenvolunteers.org for more information.
