Chore Handyman Service Receives Grant from Provident Bank Foundation

The Provident Bank Foundation recently awarded a $5,000 grant to the Volunteer Center of Bergen County's Chore Handyman Service, for its work in providing home repairs that keep senior citizen and disabled homeowners safe in their Bergen County homes. The volunteer handypersons provide this service at no cost to the clients who live in every Bergen County town; the only charge is for the parts necessary in the repairs. Provident Bank has branches in Teaneck, Leonia and Dumont.

L to R: Chore volunteer Stan Nutkiewicz of Fair Lawn; Bryce Coughlin, New Milford resident, VP and Area Manager Bergen County Provident Bank, Teaneck Branch; Chore volunteer Ed Morandi of Elmwood Park, and Chore volunteer Tim Africano of Teaneck
