Volunteer Center of Bergen County Presents Fifth Friday Networking Event - Corporate Social Responsibility

What: The Volunteer Center of Bergen County is presenting Fifth Friday, a networking event featuring lunch and presentation by Michael Kempner on the subject of corporate social responsibility.

The event will also be a celebration of the 15th Anniversary of the Business Volunteer Council (BVC), a program of the Volunteer Center.

Tickets are $40; register at bergenleads.org

Who: The keynote speaker, Michael Kempner, Founder, President and CEO of MWW, is a recognized authority on the topic of corporate social responsibility. Mr. Kempner will be discussing how corporate social responsibility impacts the bottom line and enhances civic engagement of both the individual and the company.

The Volunteer Center's Business Volunteer Council (BVC), engages businesses and their employees in volunteer service and workplace giving, enhancing corporate social responsibility. The Volunteer Center also manages Bergen LEADS, the area's civic leadership program.

Where: Stony Hill Inn, 231 Polifly Road, Hackensack

When: Friday, May 29, 2015
11:30 am to 2 pm

Why: Often referred to as the best networking event in Bergen County, Fifth Friday is hosted by the Volunteer Center of Bergen County.

Fifth Friday forums are networking and learning events that provide an opportunity to foster civil discourse on issues of topical importance. This Fifth Friday luncheon will be moderated by William "Pat" Schuber, former Bergen County Executive, and Seminar Director for Bergen LEADS, Bergen County's premier civic and leadership development program, also sponsored by the Volunteer Center of Bergen County.

Media Coverage is invited and welcome to attend this event
